
Title: Rite of the Athame

Author: Unknown

Book 1 in the series:
The Seven Rites of Lichdom.

The purpose of this Rite is to create the Ritual Knife required for the Final Rite.

Obtain thy body's weight (to the nearest stone) in unadulterated bronze.

This must then be refined and smelted into "Virgin bronze".

When completed, enchant
the metal with the souls of two Daemons, before forging into a fine
'Athame'.

The Athame must be wrapped in leather of violet hue and immersed into the Alchemical essence of true bronze until required for the Rite of Passage. It must not be touched until that time.
